

EC+ Online Course 4 Ghent University- 2017

Interpreting for special target groups: people with sensorial disabilities or who have difficulties to understand

Introduction

Disability in Europe (figures)

Living with a disability

Module 1: special target groups/legislation concerning disabled people

Content:

UN Conventions, SDG
Council of Europe
European Union
Belgium

Evaluation:

Multiple choice test

Module 2: Theory of multimodality and interpreting for special target groups

Content

Semiotic theory
Pragmatic theory:
Interaction
Audience design
Footing
Feedback

Evaluation

Multiple choice

Module 3: Interpreting adapted to people with a sensorial impairment

Content

Deaf and hard of hearing:

Best practices

Blind people:

Best practices

Evaluation

Individual exercise
(recording)

Module 4: interpreting adapted to people who ewith difficulty: easy language

Content

Best practices
Easy language
Plain English
Français facile

Evaluation

Individual exercise
(recording)

Module 5: Interpreting for people who understand with difficulty: using spontaneous gestures

Content

Spontaneous gestures
vs. sign language
Types of gestures

Evaluation

Multiple choice

Module 6: interpreting for people who understand with difficulty: using pictogrammes

Content

Best practices

Types of images

Evaluation

Individual task
(recording)

Module 7: interpreting with the EC+ tool

Content

Tools for communication with impaired people

The Ec+tool and its use

Evaluation

Multiple choice

Practicalities about the online course

Accessible to all, for free upon registration, on the Zephyr platform of the Ughent

Accessible from Sept. 2017 on

Open from Sept. until December 2017

Include 75 h. of learning activities

Gives way to a certificate of the consortium